Q.No.35. Story Writing (Total Marks: 10)

Scoring Rubrics:

Conventions	Marks = 2	Mark = 0
Characterization	The main characters are named / clearly described using variety of direct and indirect techniques. The marker could explicitly understand the characters accurately.	It is hard to tell who the main characters are and there is little or no use of direct or indirect characterization techniques.
Setting	Same vivid, descriptive words are used to tell when and where the story took place.	The marker has trouble figuring out when and where the story took place.
Plot	The story is very well organized. One idea or scene follows another in a logical sequence with clear transitions and twist.	Ideas and scenes seem to be randomly arranged.
Title of the Story	Relevant 2 Marks	Partial Irrelevancy 1 Mark	Completely Irrelevant 0 Mark
	Completely relevant to the story and self-explicit in serving a context of the story.	Partially relevant to the story and partially self-explicit in the context of the story.	Completely irrelevant to the story.
Originality	The story contains many creative details and/or descriptions that contribute to develop interest in the story. The student has really used his/her imagination.	There is little evidence of creativity in the story. The student does not seem to have used much imagination.
Deduction of Marks
Mechanics	Three mistakes of punctuation, grammar and spelling will lead to deduction of one mark from gained marks. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Capitalization errors will be included in the punctuation errors.
